

Primary School Production
Daniel – A Hard Act to Swallow

Friday June 23, 2017

Dear Parents,

Excitement is building for the Primary School Production of Daniel - A Hard Act to Swallow, which will be staged next term on Thursday August 3rd and Friday August 4th, in the MECS Gym.

The students have been busy rehearsing. The teachers have been working in the background to organise costumes, sets, dances, acting and singing.

In the last two weeks, you will have received a general class costume letter outlining the costume your child requires for their class song/dance items.

The school will provide all the costumes for the main actors and characters. (i.e. All Senior Primary actors and Middle Primary lions)

Performance Schedule

Wednesday 2nd August 2017: Whole Primary Dress Rehearsal in Gym from 9am (no audience)

Thursday 3rd August 2017: Matinee Performance starting at 1.30pm in the Gym (ticketed)

Friday 4th August 2017: Evening Performance at 7pm in the Gym. (ticketed)

Ticketing

We are pleased to announce that ticket sales are now open. There is a limit of 4 tickets per family for the evening performance due to high demand.

Ticket sales will take place online via the Flexischools website.

Prices are $10/parent or guardian, $5/ other adult relative, $5/secondary or uni student, children free. Please follow the attached instructions to purchase your tickets.

A further letter will be sent early next term outlining the logistics of production week, and offering parking advice for the evening performance.

Blessings,

Di Emery
