Parent Seminar A
Come and find out what makes MECS tick.

Parent Seminar B
Let’s unpack the ‘jargon’ around Christian education.
Dear Parents,

Welcome to MECS! We are so glad you have chosen to partner with us in the education of your child. We hope you have already had the opportunity to experience our hospitality and we are confident that the year has begun well for your child. Why? Because we have teachers who care deeply about the educational experience of each child in their care and we have prayed regularly that each of them would settle into this school in the best possible way!

By joining us in partnership, you have committed to understanding what Christian education is all about. This is an exciting journey that we invite you on. By becoming a partner, and not a consumer, there are some key ideas that we want you to understand.

Please join me over two evenings as we seek to explain what is unique about MECS, and what is unique about Christian education. We would love it if both parents could attend, but we understand this is not always possible.

Personally, I look forward to meeting each one of you over the next few months.

Yours in His name,

Narelle Sketcher
MECS Principal
